

Year 9 English Exam

Week Commencing 23rd May 2016

Who?	All students in Year 9
What?	A 90 minute exam paper. Section A: Romeo and Juliet by Shakespeare (testing reading skills). Section B: Imaginative Writing (testing writing skills).
When?	In a double lesson in the week beginning 23 rd May 2016. English teachers will confirm the exact day with individual classes.
Where?	Regular English classrooms.
Why?	To give students the experience of sitting a formal English exam. It will also give English teachers an opportunity to assess reading and writing skills and create targets for how to develop further.

How to revise for the Year 9 English Exam

Reading Section – Romeo & Juliet

- Create mind maps or flash cards for characters and themes. Ask a friend or family member to test you – can you remember what's on your flashcards?
- Write the plot in bullet points – which parts of the play link together?
- Create a mind map or flash card about the context of the play: what was life like in Elizabethan England? Ask someone to test you – how much can you remember?
- Write a summary of the play in your own words.
- Choose extracts from the play at random and try the following:
 - a) Choose 5-10 interesting words/phrases and for each one say what makes it interesting.
 - b) What do we learn about characters or themes in the extract?
 - c) What do we learn about Elizabethan England in the extract?
 - d) Read an extract from another novel or play, or remind yourself of something which you have studied in English lessons at Chesterton. Compare Romeo and Juliet to the other text – what similarities and differences are there?

Writing Section

- Read, read, read! Read a range of extracts from fiction and non-fiction. Think about the words and the techniques the writer has used. How could you use those techniques in your own writing?
- Revise language devices such as similes, metaphors, alliteration, emotive language, personification, triples. For each one write some examples.
- Revise sentence variety. Try writing the same sentence but starting in different ways.
- Revise when to start a new paragraph. Remember TIP TOP. Time change, Place change, new Topic, new Person.
- Revise punctuation. How many of these can you use accurately? . , ? ! : ; “
- Test your spellings. How many of the spellings on the next page can you spell correctly?
- Try planning some imaginative stories. Take a newspaper headline, ask a friend or family to give you a word such as: journey, lost, etc. or find an interesting picture – now make a plan of a story you would write to go with that stimulus.
